Tom - can't you help me get this story in Rolling Stone or at least the Bay-? I MUST HAVE MAXIMUM PUBLICITY TO LAUNCH MY MOVIE - NEARLY FINISHED! THANKS FOR HELP. LOVE Kon

Win a date with Paul

AT LAST Paul McCartney and Wings are playing London again . . . and you can be there as my guest.

I'm giving away 25 pairs of tickets for the best seats in the house at Paul's concert at Empire Pool, Wembley, on October 20.

There are 25 copies of the band's latest album, Wings At The Speed of Sound, for the runners-up.

What you have to do in this free competition is answer these six questions about Paul McCartney and Wings.

1—Wings has: (a) Four members; (b) Five members; (c) Six members.

2—Paul McCartney usually plays: (a) bass guitar; (b) lead guitar; (c) harmonica.

3—Denny Laine used to be with: (a) Led Zeppelin; (b) Swinging Blue Jeans; (c) Moody Blues.

4—Linda McCartney is: (a) 25; (b) 30; (c) 34.

5—Wings' first album was: (a) Wild Life; (b) Red Rose Speedway; (c) Band on the Run.

6—Joe English plays: (a) lead guitar; (b) drums; (c) keyboards.

WRITE the code letter of your answer to each question in a correctly-numbered list on a piece of paper. Then, in not more than twelve words, invent a title for Wings' next album.

Add your name and address, attach the AD LIB headline from this page, and send your entry in a stamped, sealed envelope to Wings Contest, Evening News, New Carmelite House, London, E.C.4Y 0JA (Comp.) to arrive not later than Monday, October 4.

Senders of the best 25 answers will receive the tickets; senders of the next best 25, the albums.

(No correspondence. The Editor's decision is final. Employees of Associated Newspapers Group Ltd., and members of their families, are not eligible. The result will be published on Saturday October 9).

LONDON'S TOP reggae record shop—Daddy Kool, in Hanway Street, Soho, is turning itself into a record company.

First release on Daddy Kool records will be Cornell Campbell's I Heart Is Clean.

Daddy Kool—opened ten months ago by two 30-year-old London reggae fanatics—has already established itself as the primary source of West Indian music for DJs like John Peel.

EATS

NOW THAT their novelty value has worn off, most American hamburger joints have become pretty boring places to eat.

Full marks then to Cassidy's — The Home Of The Heavenly Hamburger, in Holland Street, Kensington, for offering the most adventurous hamburger menu I've seen.

Their burgers come with names like Southern Belle, The Suzie Wong and Sahib's Favourite.

The music is good rock 'n' roll and the place is attractive, with brown hessian walls and old photographs.

I tried a Butch Cassidy, which comes with mushroom and sour cream sauce and costs £1·25 for the half pound version with chips.

Sadly the sauce only served to make the hamburger taste decidedly unpleasant. Much better was my companion's cheeseburger—called a Henry VIII (£1·27).

To drink there are the usual overpriced beers and carafe wines or excellent creamy milkshakes at 40p.

JAGGER: The first

FAITHFULL: filmed

VICTIMS OF THE OCCULT

MULTI-MILLIONAIRE guitarist Jimmy Page has followed Mick Jagger, Marianne Faithfull and others to become the latest victim of an occult film called Lucifer Rising.

For ten years every attempt to make it has ended in disaster.

First star was to have been Bobby Beausoleil, guitarist with Love. He became a follower of Charles Manson and ended up jailed for life on a murder charge.

Mick Jagger took on the role, then backed out and was replaced by his brother Chris—who was sacked by the director, Kenneth Anger.

Marianne Faithfull filmed some scenes for the film in Egypt five years ago. But nothing has come of them.

Led Zeppelin's Jimmy Page has been working on music for the film for several years. But this week he quarrelled with Anger . . . who now claims he has sacked him as well.

HALF PRICE theatre tickets will be on sale to Londoners from Friday.

The tickets, for almost every show running in London, will be available from a little caravan at the corner of Russell Street and Market Piazza, Covent Garden.

The scheme is being run by the Arts Council to encourage theatre-going following a highly successful similar venture in New York.

Only snag is that tickets must be bought on the day you want to go to the show. Matinee tickets on sale noon to 2 p.m.; evening tickets 3 p.m. to 8 p.m.

REGULAR READERS will recall that in the past I have not been exactly over-zealous in my praise for the Bay City Rollers.

But I am forced to admit that the wee tartan gentlemen have actually come up with quite a good album this time.

It's called Dedication and, despite its musical limitations, it's a beautifully balanced, cleverly done piece of work.

"All these groups sound like a lot of cats screeching if you ask me!"

PART EXCHANGE your old jeans for new ones!

Midnight Blue (in Fulham Road and Old Brompton Road) allow between one and five pounds on any old denims against their new ones, which cost from £6·50 to £39 a pair.

Open until midnight six days a week and until 9 p.m. on Sundays.

They cut up the old rags and use them for making patchwork denim skirts, jackets . . . and jeans.

RINGO STARR has read with astonishment reports in German newspapers that he plans to buy a house and settle in that country after his wedding. "Not true at all," he informs me.

NEW ALBUMS have been finished by Pink Floyd and Led Zeppelin—who are both making plans to tour Britain next year.

THE STONES are in Canada mixing an album of live recordings made during their European tour.
